Village Sermons 1848

in western religious traditions god is conventionally conceived as a humanlike creator lawgiver and king a being both accessible and actively present in history yet there is a concurrent and strong tradition of a god who actively hides the two traditions have led to a tension between a god who is simultaneously accessible to humanity and yet inaccessible a god who is both immanent and transcendent present and absent western gnostic esoteric and mystical thinking capitalizes on the hidden and hiding god he becomes the hallmark of the mystics gnostics sages and artists who attempt to make accessible to humans the god who is secreted away histories of the hidden god explores this tradition from antiquity to today the essays focus on three essential themes the concealment of the hidden god the human quest for the hidden god and revelations of the hidden god
